

August 15, 1917.

Mrs. Dora Allen,
Cookeville, Tennessee.

My Dear Mrs. Allen:

Your letter of August 6 to Mr. Austin Smith has been referred to me. We have given out all the places we have in the dormitory and on the campus for young women, but the probabilities are that your daughter, Gladys, could find a place in a good home in town, if she would care to do that kind of work.

We are going to call a meeting of the citizens of Cookeville at an early date and see if we can work out plans to take care of a number of students.

I shall see Mr. Smith today and talk to him about the matter.

You may be assured that we will do every thing we can to help your daughter secure an education.

Respectfully yours,

President.
